

American Studies

What Can I Do With This Degree?

AREAS	EMPLOYERS	STRATEGIES
Government Grants Coordinator Campaign Coordinator Public Historian Politician Military officer FBI/CIA agent Election Supervisor	Federal/State/Local Government Colleges and Universities Research Firms Social Service Agencies Health and Human Services Dept. Banks Environmental Protection Agency	Become involved in an internship  Get involved in an organizations that is related
Education Teacher/Professor Student Senate Coordinator College/University Official Library Assistant	Historical Societies Publishing Companies Schools, Private and Public Air, Bus and Rail Lines Archives	Develop excellent communication skills— writing, presentations, and discussing, viewpoints related to a diversity of backgrounds
Business Bank Officer Business Administrator Collections Manager Credit Manager Information Specialist Management Trainee Manager/Chamber of Commerce Market Research Analyst Sales Representative Retail Buyer Broker Museum Educator	Armed Forces Business Corporations Chambers of Commerce Community Arts Organizations Civil Rights Commission Consumer Affairs Office Federal Communications Agency Justice Dept. Labor Dept. Library of Commerce Insurance Companies Investment Firms Magazines/Newspapers National and State Parks Not-for Profit Organizations	Become familiar with analysis and Research Analyze ideas/situations, examine evidence  Interpersonal Skills; lead and participate in groups, compare cultures/societies and work within organizations
Historical Historic Interpreter Historic Preservation Specialist Historic Site Administrator Historical Archeologist Historical Society Staff Member

AREAS

Communications

Columnist/Commentator

Community Action

Specialist

Community Relations

Director

Continuity Writer

Author/Editor

Journalist

Affirmative Action

Representative

Conservator