

International Studies

What Can I Do With This Degree?

AREAS	EMPLOYERS	STRATEGIES
*Employment opportunities may depend on double major Government Public Policy Research Regional Planning City or Town Management Peace Corps Intelligence Service Foreign Service US International Communication Agency Government Agencies FBI/CIA Agent	Federal, state, and local government	Complete an internship Become involved in student government Write for campus publications dealing with national and international affairs Develop skills in computer, statistics, and data analysis Acquire foreign language competency
Law Lawyer Legal Assistant Paralegal	Law firms Corporations State and local government Public interest agencies	Develop research, writing, analytical and communication skills Attend law school to earn law degree Attend specialized training program for paralegals
Business Statistician Sale Representative Tour Director Customer Service Rep Credit manager Bank Officer Insurance Agent Travel Agent	International business firms Publishing Companies Travel Agencies Banks Educational Institutions	Develop strong analytical, verbal, writing, and computer skills For international company, become competent in foreign language Get experience through internship in area of interest Earn leadership role on campus

AREAS

Social Service
Fundraiser/Development
Officer
Lobbyist

Journalism/Communications
Newsletter
Reporter
Editor
Correspondent
Tour Guide/Docent

EMPLOYERS

Not-For-Profit Agencies

Publishing Companies
Major TV Networks

STRATEGIES

Volunteer in a not-for profit agency
Join university clubs and organizations
Get experience through internships or volunteering in area of interest

Gain experience in radio or TV
Get internship experience
Volunteer with public radio
Write for college newspaper
Become involved in drama
Develop strong verbal, writing, and computer skills